hotel.

Mr. Brennan claims that Mr. Morris was to pay $6,000 a month rent for ten years, according to the terms of the lease, but Mr. Morris insists that the house was not completed on time as per contract, and that he was therefore conceded a reduction in his first year's link Brennan, who lives at 191 Wess.

Mr. Brennan, who lives at 121 West Sixtyninth street, deales this, and says Morris has mismanaged the hotel and refused an accounting, while the contract between them is only a month to month agreement. He is tired of Morris, he adds, and served the ejection notices only as a formal way to get the dispute into court.
